

Wealth management

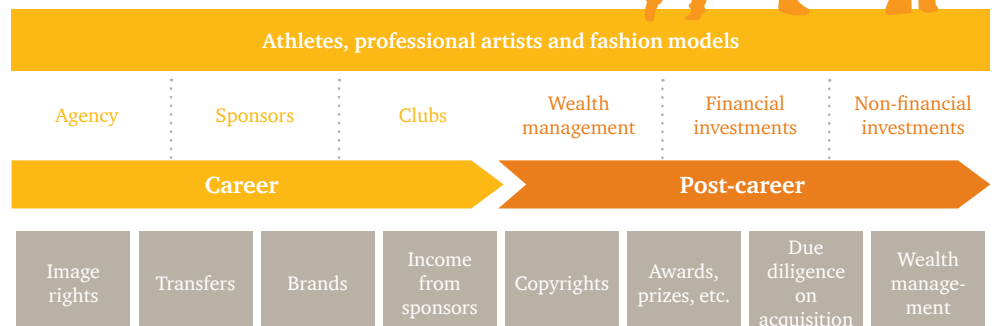

Preserving and controlling the wealth of athletes, artists and fashion models.

Our wealth management service dedicated to athletes, professional artists and fashion models

Athletes, professional artists and fashion models create wealth in often short careers. This income - which usually fluctuates - is also subject to special tax considerations.

Timeline of career

Focusing on what happens during your career and when it comes to an end

Managing your wealth properly so that you can enjoy the fruits of your work not just now but in the long run is critical. To help you figure out what best suits your situation, you need advisers who have highly specialised skills and who know the environment you work in.

We believe that each talent needs to be developed and protected; this is why our private wealth services department has created a team dedicated to advising athletes, professional artists, fashion models as well as the various parties linked to your own business.

We have an extensive experience in structuring income flows (e.g. salaries, commission, transfer fees and royalties) and private wealth. We perform due diligences and help investors, agencies and sports club find financial solutions. Experience matters. We are comfortable talking about sports and media issues. Whether you need to assess your situation or manage your wealth, we'll have people at hand who can help.

Our mission: sustaining your wealth

We offer bespoke wealth management services. First, we will assess your situation. Then, we will assist you in structuring and managing your income and finally we will develop together effective tax-optimisation solutions.

How we can help

We support you all through the stages of your career, protecting and increasing your income while supporting you in your move to a post-career life. We also help you make plans for passing on your wealth to your heirs.
